

Bystander Intervention Training

JOIN US FOR THIS FREE TRAINING EVENT

First Congregational Church, Bellingham | April 15, 2018 - 2:00 to 4:00 pm | 2401 Cornwall Ave

You are standing in line at the grocery store, and witness someone giving an immigrant family in the line a hard time. You are waiting at the bus stop, and a group of guys start harassing a young woman wearing a hijab. You are in a park, and overhear a transgender man being called derogatory names. You are in any public place and..... What can a bystander do to help?

Ty Schroyer will lead us in Bystander Intervention Training using principals of nonviolence, de-escalation strategies and role playing to prepare us to be allies with people being targeted. Ty is a counselor, educator and activist that has spent over twenty-five years on justice issues with a major emphasis on ending men's violence against women. He is a husband of twenty-five years to Barb Jones-Schroyer (also a trainer & nonviolence educator) and has a strong faith in God with a focus on "love your neighbor as yourself".

Sponsored by the First Congregational Church of Bellingham (FCCB). While there is no charge for the training, there will be a free will offering for the FCCB Ground Floor, a joint project of the FCCB and Northwest Youth Services. <http://fccb.net/the-ground-floor/>
