COVENANT AND MISSION

RESOLUTIONS OF THE CONGREGATION

Open and Affirming.

“We, the members of the First Congregational Church of Bellingham, United Church of Christ, publicly resolve:

We believe in a loving God, who embraces the dignity, worth, and sacredness of every person. We believe God loves all persons without regard to gender, race, ethnicity, economic or social status, and sexual orientation. We believe we are created in God’s image and are called upon to accept and understand our humanity and diversity as gifts from God. We recognize that the institutional church has often judged persons based upon their sexual orientation, and has excluded these persons from the community of faith.

The church has often been silent concerning societal injustice. Therefore, we covenant to welcome and affirm every person, without regard to sexual orientation, into the full life, rites and ministry of our church. We commit ourselves to act for justice and inclusiveness.

Together, God at our center, we covenant to be an Open and Affirming church community. We pray, as those who follow Christ, for the capacity to envision life as it could be and, with the help of God, to unite ourselves across our differences and to treat all with respect, dignity, love, compassion and justice.”

This statement was approved by congregational vote on March 14, 1999. A January 13, 2008 congregational vote approved the present language with the understanding that “rites” include marriage rites.

Just Peace.

Jesus taught and lived a new reality he referred to as the 'Kingdom of God.' God's reign was already present in our world if we just shifted our perception, recognized it, and lived in God's domain now. Jesus invited his disciples then, and invites us today, to a life of Peace and Justice; a 'Just Peace' rooted in the Hebrew word 'Shalom' – a sense of wholeness for each person and for our planet.

Jesus invites us to a life of...

- Service to our Neighbor
- Radical Hospitality
- Peace Making
- Restorative and Economic Justice
- Stewardship of our Planet
- Building Community for the Journey

Our chosen methods are the practices of...

- Hope
- Unconditional Love
- Forgiveness
- Non Violence
- Reconciliation

In living out Shalom as a Just Peace church, we covenant as a bold faith community to reflect Jesus' radical love as an Open and Affirming church. No matter where you are on life's journey personally, a Just Peace church declaration encourages us as individuals and as a faith community to educate, grow, empower and spiritually renew ourselves for peace making, doing justice and practicing sustainability in our families, community and world. Where there is justice, there is peace.

We are called as a Just Peace church to...

- Stand with, and advocate for, all who experience injustice and violence: the hungry, sick, poor, elderly, homeless, neglected, exploited, marginalized and discouraged.
- Partner with religious and community groups who advocate for justice and peace.
- Root out the causes of injustice and violence within the social structures of our society to bring about systemic change and healing.
- Create a spiritual home of renewal and nurture for all those who do peace and social justice work in the world, at their jobs or as volunteers, sharing each others' joys and burdens.

This statement was approved by a congregational vote on Sunday, January 27, 2013
