

they lost everything

In June 1942, Bellingham families prepare to board a bus in front of the Okubo family home at 1406 H Street (Courtesy Whatcom Museum Archives)

Weds April 12, 2023 6-8pm

The Foundation Lounge 1209 Cornwall Avenue

FREE!

LSNA invites the community to join us for a presentation by Carole Teshima and Nikkei Northwest

More than 120,000 Japanese and Japanese American families were incarcerated in the United States during WWII. Nikkei Northwest members will give an overview of the Bellingham families who were forcibly removed from their homes and businesses and never returned.

The event is free but space is limited. Please register at: theylosteverything.brownpapertickets.com

sponsored by: Lettered Streets Neighborhood Association questions? ask us at lettered.streets@gmail.com facebook.com/letteredstreets